

Diversity Programs

Service Description: CHATS Diversity Outreach Programs promote well-being and integration activities for groups of seniors from the following cultural/linguistic groups: Iranian, Russian, Italian, South Asian and Tamil. Programs utilize a holistic approach to wellness, providing clients with opportunities for social interaction, celebration of cultural events and development of resource networks including the provision of information on health, exercise, and well-being. Programs may provide a culturally appropriate snack or meal. Transportation is provided where available.

Service Provider(s): CHATS Outreach Coordinators and Volunteers with appropriate cultural and linguistic competence

Persons Served: Immigrants, including newcomers to Canada who are 55 years and older or those with an age-related condition

- Eligibility:
1. 55 years of age or older or living with an age-related condition
 2. Residents of York Region or South Simcoe.
 3. Able to independently tend to personal needs (e.g. self-toileting).
 4. Do not exhibit wandering behaviour.
 5. Mentally and physically stable.
 6. Able to function socially at acceptable levels.
